France's Oldest Lemonade Factory

Elixia, founded in 1856 by Faustin Girardet, is France's oldest family-owned lemonade factory, spanning six generations.

Pure Jura Mountain Water

This natural French lemonade is crafted from the pure water of the Jura Mountains, delivering exceptional freshness and quality.

Traditional Craftsmanship Preserved

Using bronze and copper equipment, Elixia maintains its original manual production methods for timeless quality.

Pure Ingredients for a Classic Taste

Made with natural flavors and pure cane sugar, Elixia offers a refreshing taste, staying true to its roots.

A Legacy Refreshed

In 2000, the sixth generation introduced new flavors and packaging, blending innovation with tradition.

Farm-Made Chocolate

Mackie's chocolate is crafted on-site at Westertown Farm in a converted tractor shed, powered by the farm's wind turbines.

From Raw Cocoa to Bars

Using Scottish-made machinery, Mackie's crafts small batches of dark and milk chocolate from raw cocoa liquor, blending with carefully chosen ingredients.

Refining & Conching

Chocolate is refined to a smooth texture and conched to remove bitterness, with the final texture reaching a particle size of under 20 microns for a melt-in-the-mouth feel.

Creative Flavors & Design

Mackie's adds house-made fruit compotes and caramels for unique flavors and decorates each bar with farm-inspired designs before wrapping and hand-packing.

Single Variety Co

Focused on Flavor

Single Variety Co is dedicated to crafting preserves that celebrate the natural flavors of single fruit varieties, capturing their unique character in every jar.

Minimal Ingredients

Each preserve is made with only the essentials—fresh fruit, sugar, and lemon juice—ensuring an authentic taste that highlights the fruit's natural quality.

Small-Batch Craftsmanship

Handmade in small batches, the preserves are carefully cooked to retain vibrant colors, bold flavors, and a luxurious texture.

Seasonal and Sustainable

By working with local farmers and using seasonal fruits, Single Variety Co supports sustainable practices while delivering peak flavor year-round.

A Refreshing Taste of Tradition

Summerdown Mint brings you the bright flavor of Black Mitcham peppermint, a heritage crop revived after being lost to England for decades.

Sustainably Grown in Hampshire

The mint is grown on the family-run farm, creating a natural habitat for peacocks, bees, and butterflies.

Uniquely British Mint

As the only UK producer to grow and distill their own peppermint, Summerdown ensures unparalleled quality in every product.

Reviving a Lost Flavor

Black Mitcham peppermint, brought back from the U.S. over 30 years ago, is prized for its extraordinary character.

From Field to Treat

Every chocolate and tea is crafted from homegrown peppermint, delivering a taste as fresh as the Hampshire fields themselves.

Handcrafted Escape in a Bottle

Summerhouse Drinks invites you to unwind with refreshing, hand-crafted beverages that capture the essence of relaxation. Each sip transports you to a summer retreat, offering a moment of calm in a busy world.

Fresh, Natural Ingredients

From mint and lavender to ginger and pumpkin, we blend herbs, spices, and natural fruit juices with sparkling Scottish water and British beet sugar. The result? Fresh, tangy flavors that restore and refresh.

Crafted with Care

Our recipes are developed in-house and made with all-natural ingredients. No artificial additives—just pure, pasteurized goodness you can trust.

Sustainability at Heart

Committed to conservation, we work with the RSPB to protect wildlife and adopt eco-friendly farming practices. Solar panels power our factory, and our drinks come in glass bottles, the most sustainable choice.
